

Kings, queens and castles

Knowledge organiser

Year 1

Timeline

Key vocabulary

king 	queen 	reign 	monarch 	past 	present attack 	protect 	residence 	before 	monument 	similar different 	regal 	significant 	then 	now 	after

How do we find out about the past?

Castles and palaces built for important people

built on hills to protect people from attack very big to show how much money the important person had

The present day

King Charles III is the present-day king of England

His mother, Queen Elizabeth II reigned for 70 years.

Important castles and palaces for recent monarchs:

• Buckingham Palace

• Balmoral Castle in Scotland

• Windsor Castle

The past

William I reigned in the year 1066 after winning the Battle of Hastings.

He is also known as William the Conqueror.

Between William I and the present-day King Charles III, there have been 41 other kings and queens of England.

